my late tour in Europe, I obtained several new Instruments and Remedies of incalculable value in my speciality. There is now othing known to the faculty in either hemisphere with which I am not familiar, which, combined with an extensive practice for 20 years in the city of New York, enables me to restor SIGHT and HEARLNGIN many cases hitherto deemed hopeless. Cataract positively cured by a new method, without pain; also, Squinting or Cross Eyes in a few seconds. Amanrosis cured in the majority of cases. Granulations. Ulcers, Films or Specs, and Watty Eye, Invariably; also, Desfiness, Singing in the Ear, and Discharges, by an enlirely new process. My Treatise on the Eye' (price 80 cents), also ARTIFICIAL EYEB, which more and look exactly like the natural eye, and are inserted without an operation, and all Remedies, forwarded by mail.

TUESDAY, - - DECEMBER 16. 1556.

We see that the Knew-Nothing editors are exercising themselves a good deal upon the power of the Electoral College. I: is a very harmiess employment, and we don't eare to interrupt it; but the meterial question is not the power of the Electoral College, but the power of the Secretary of State. Had he not the power to submit the returns in his office to the inspection of Messrs. Reed and Woolley? Or had he the power to refuse their request? There is no law in Kentucky forbidding him to show the records in his office to any citizen or citizens, no matter in what character they came; on the centrary, it is his duty to exhibit the public records, of which he is merely the custodian. Meiers. Reed and Woolley had as much right to examine the public records as the Secretary himself. It is of no consequence to the Secretary whether the Electoral College had power to use the information they got officially or not. He is not the judge of their powers; not could any use of such information affect the See retary officially. It might affect his party before the people, perhaps, and there is the rub. Besides, these self-styled Americans are a high party in their estimation. They and their Western Lights are a sort of higher-isw party that have rights of a higher law order. We doubt if the authorities of any other party would have con-right to show the returns in his office to Mesers. Reed and W olley? What law of the State for bide it? Who, in this State, would have made an objection? Would the majority who elected these electors? Would the mass of the Know-Nothing party have objected? We believe they would not; on the coursery, the organs know it is an invidious affair; and they tell at it to make it all palatable to their own readers. If the Secretary had thrown open the returns and said, there, gentlomen, we are glad you have taken the at 11 1/2 o'clock, A. M., November 19, 1856. trouble to come; we desire to satisfy the whole Charman of the Committee, and Rev. D. Sievenpeople of the State as to the grounds upon which we have acted; it is a very extraordinary and awkward result; and we wish all parties to son that we have at least meant right; and that the names, to-wit:

David Thernton, Mercan Brown, Wm. R Dunfau't is not here.

Such conduct would have needed no explanation or apology. As it is, the organs are painfully emp oyed in framing miserable excuses, for an unwarrantable act that will look no better after they have wasted their ink and paper. The question returns after all they say, why did not the Sceretary show these returns? What isw of the State ferbade it? What law anthorized the Secretary to niquire into the character it. which the applicants came ?

We see that the editor of the chie! Know. Nothing organ, who is bound to be smarter and the rest, has conjured up a high point on the subjest of the powers of the Electoral College. Its mombers, according to this high authority, are feleral officers, and have nothing to do with read and epiroved. into the election returns was an encroachment upon State rights. This is a very bright idea if the college be a federal affair entirely, what right had State efficers to supervise the election returns, and say who was and who was not elected? This is a very material point in the business. It This is a very material point in the business. It pending the consideration of which the Commitgives the power to State officers to defeat the tee had adjustmed, was adopted.

Rev. P. N. R. I. ten offered the following The people of Kentucky will hold these State officers to a strict around as to how they perform the Kentucky Conference, propose to the citizens their day. The members of the Electoral Color Kentucky within the bounds of the Courer-They were chosen by the people and according socure to the Conference twenty thousand dolto the laws of the Sate, and in voting for a President and Vice President, they performed a daily amount so accured, other advantages being equal. for the State. The mode of their election was a State affir; por did they come to be State officers because elected to do an aut for the federal goverament. But this le ail nothing to the point Why aidn't the Secretary show the returns?

Officers Powell and Bligh arrested a negro preacher f Mad son on saturday, who is the read with having un off several slass from Catroll and Trim le coun-les to the State. Officer Bligh wint upon the mailboat

The rame committee were directed to prepare only a few weeks ago that Andersou was an employed advocate of a cance espoused by a leading party journal here. Ho is now on the way to ference, and to report the same to this committee at its next meeting in July, 1857.

Im Judge Brown merely denied the power of the Electoral College to using the duties of the Board of Examiners and thus keep him out of his own office, as they would have done virually, had he permitted their Committee as such, to interfere in a y way with

It seems then that the Secretary was afraid the College would turn him out of his office; no wender that he felt nervons on the subject, considering the wolfishness of his party after office. We didn's know that the College had any designs upon the office of the Secretary; but he is in imminent danger of losing his office in time; and this last act of his will not diminish the danger

The Black Republican editors are well pleased with the reports of the insurrections of negroes in the clave States; it affords them opportunities for disparaging comments. They will be disappointed to find them little more than reports. If the negroes were nominally free, they would have plenty of such occurrences to gloat

The organs are quite eloquent upon the vitality of the American party. There is an obvions necessity to insist upon this point just now. It is in order; proceed.

[From the Republican Banuer.] Stop the Faischood!

A young usu by the name of Felts (Thomas Felts, we believe), living in Logen county, Ky., near the neighborhood of Dr. Conn, came to Springfield, Tenn, on the 6th inst., and told us that the night previous, about miduight, himself and five other patrols unexpectedly came upon a collection of negroes—about one hundred in number—who were harboeneling about fifty careasees, and that Col. Thomas H. Drane was making them an Abolition speech. That same of the negroes fired upon the patrol, who fied a short distance, and turned and fired on about a dozen parrows, the remainder having dispersed. The egrous, the remainder having dispersed. The negroes, the remainder having dispersed. The patrol shot one negro is the arm, and captured teu. Drane made his ecape. On the 6th fast, those captured negroes were sent to Russellville, Ky, to jail. This is about the substance of the story. We and others have publicly and privately speken of it freely on the authority of Felts. We have recently learned, however, from various reliable sources in the neighborhood of Dr. Cann that this whole story is a fubrication. reitable sources in the neighboorhood of Dr.

To those who know Char loy, it is unnecessary to add, that he generally succeeds in "amusing" them.

But to our story. One sweltering August day, Cherley was traveling on one of the dosty thorough fares known as county roads, in the State of Hoosier. Choked with dust, half-melted with the heat, jaded with a hald-trotting hore, that would like the state of insick upon waitsing around every black stnmp at the road-side, and with not a grocery upon the whole line of the road, our traveler was of course her coronation.

Charley was dressed a la Hoosier, and a sharper eye than the Jew's might have readily taken him for what he seemed to be, an unsophisticated denizen of the very ruralest (vide Webster, next edition), of the rural districts. Reining up his horse, he cast au admiring glance at the glittering treasures of the pediar.

This was addressed to the Hoosler, who had just expressed some vegue doubt as to the purity of metal. Charley got off his horse, hitched him to a fence-corner, and citting down by the outspread pack, seemed lost in some abstruse mental calculation.

The Hoosier proved rather a slow customer. The truth was, he had not a cent of menoy present or prespective, and the Jew had began to saspect as much, so he turned his attention to his

The Jew entered into a lengthened history of the diamond and its uses, embracing summ facts not yet generally known to the scientific world.

"And is all these things pure gold?" asked Charley.
"Yesh, yesh, all de very besht-no jewolers golt,

but right from Californy."
"What might you ask a feller for this?"
It was a pin of magnifi ont proportions, an ovel of painted glass about three inches by four, set in firmey rim of washed met il, and worth for the Charman of the Committee, and Rev. D. Stevenson Secretary.

Charley stuck it on his shirt becom, but when he spose of wearing it to church next Sunday, even the old Jew opened his eyes slightly, and bluted something about its being "more purposed er a lady to vear."

Article after article was priced by Charley, and expatiated upon by the Jow.

"Well, old feller," said Charley at length, "them's all very well for retail prices; but how much will you kacek off for wholesale?'
"Vat you meansh, my frent, by wholesale?"

The Jew looked at him for a full minute belive he answered. He was taking his measure, and he thought be had it.

The first thing taken up for appraisement was a flasby watch-chain, which the Jew ventured to value at ten dollars.

"Choap as dirt," said Chariey; "couldn't be made for twice the money in this country."

The Jew winced; he had evidently lost five do lars by not saying fifteen, and he determined to make it up on the next article, which proved to he a breast-pin of even more imposing proportions than the one which had first captivated Carrier's anny, and the Jew boldly put it down at fifteen

"Bon my onner, my frent, it cost me fifteen dol-larsh in Baris."

Two long mortal hours, did the Jew perspire over his task. The snn seemed to have been gotten up especially for the occasion, and never shone half as intensely before, while the wind brought tednet from all points of the compass at once. At last, the inventory was completed, and footed up some nine hundred and odd dollars. Tho Jew rolled the pack up, and for the hundredth time wiped the mingled perspiration and dust from

The Jew fairly danced with rage,

Although somewhat hard-shell in our religious proclivities, we are not to say opposed to temper nes societies, associations for the development of remen's rights, or anti-tobacco-chewing leagues. REPUTATION OF THE NEWS BY THE LAST Veliber do we encourage the style of driving norses with plow-ilnes, nor greating one's boots with tallow. We have always ontertalued doubts lowever, as to carrying reforms into extremes. The editor of one of our sountry exchanges devotes his leader to Fact and Fancy.

A TIRADE AGAINST THE DEE OF TOBAGOD. And insultingly wente his cotton-colored saliva into the face of every one who uses tobacco in any erm. He is so heated by his subject toward the naclation, that he expresses the opinion that no centieman can smoke or chew, and that no lady an erjoy the titilisting entacy of the slightest in h of sauff. He very importinently estechlace te men as to why they ohew the filthy weed. We presume that the majority of them show it for the very practical reason that the boy gave he "old oudger," his father, when he asked him similar questing-namely, "To git the juice ut'n it." We do not advocate an expessive inlulgence in any of the luxuries of life. We hear carvelous stories of smckers who are in the habit reducing their twenty-five, and even fity, longated "nines" to ashes in a single day, while there tell us that they express the jaise from a ereat many "plngs" in a very few hours; and we ave all heard of the eld lady who was so addicted to her Micasboy that she disturbed the slumbers of her husband at night, who, upon inquiry as to the disturbance, learned with surprise that is better half was "up to saufi"- (bence the proverb); that was an exciting story, also, about the grass-hoppers of Missonri, which were represented having eaten up the entire tobacco crop of that gion, and then perched themselves upon the nces, and solicited travelers to give thom a We set our faco against these extravagent ners of the weed; but, while we eschew it ourselves, we would not deprive others of the mollifying luftuenees of the mild Havana, the comforts f their fine-cut or pig tail, or the musical tap of he snuff-box. Puritanical complainers, who nevor had the nerve to learn the excellencies of tobacce, may rail against the practice of its use till doom cracks, but such as choose will continue to make, and the old lady who was "up to anuf," will find thousands to back her. If, however, me friend, and everybody's friend, Mr. S. S. Junes, This i street, should feel at liberty to send us a box of his fine liavanas, we would feel fully war-rantel in puffing him and m. But it was our intention at the outset to apprise the reader of

THE DISABILITIES OF TOBACCO IN OLDEN TIMES. In 1647 the starp tos of Connecticut contained a provision which was intended to prohibit entirely the use of tobacco in that Commonwealth. We quote from Trumball's History: "As tobace. about this time (1647) was coming into use in the tolony, a very enrious law was made for its reguation, or suppression. It was ordered that no person under wenty years of age, wor any other who had not accountemed himself to the use of it, hould take any tobacco until he had c. Stained a tertificate from under the hand of an approved ply. c'an that i' was useful for him, and un til h. rad obtained a license from the court. All other ere, who had addicted themselves to the use of 11, vere probibited from taking it is any company, or at their labors, or in traveling, unless ten miles, at east, from any company; and though not in ompany, not more than once a day, noon paying a fine of sixpence for every such iff shie. Out histantial witness was to be sufficient proof of be crime. The constables of the several towns vere to make tresen ment to the particular ourts, and it was ordered that the fine should paid without gainsaying." WASHINGTON, Dee 15. WASHINGTON, Dee 15.
The Supreme Court met to-day. All the judges were present and membry distinguished jutiets and members of Congress. The case of Scott plaintiff vs F. A. Sandford came up for argament on questions of law. The plaintiff, usin of color, trought suit to try his right of free om. He claims to have been emencipated b which act, is declared by the Constitution of that stress operated to emancipate. The Grenit Court ecided against the plaintiff on the ground that by his return to Missouri his masters right, dor-ment whilst in Illinois, was revived—that the Constitution of Linois was a penal law which Courts of other States were not bound to ea totes. The case was argued at the last session, but the decision ruserved to allow argumens on points of law. Montgomery Plair for the plaintiff, Reverdy Johnson, H. S. Grier, for the claim-

Mr. Blair opened the case, by stating that nothing was said at the last session upon one question on which the Conrt invited argument, vir. whother a plea in abatement of the jurisdiction of the Court is waived by pleading the merits of the case. He quoted the decision of Juige Dauiel to ba: effect, that the act of '89 did not change the rule of common taw, requiring a plea in abstraction. Unless scal judgment was made on that Asa, it is waised. The Court samuet take notice fe evidence ween trying law on the subject, nother question is, whether the applicant is a streen of Missouri. Mr. Blair contended that no plaintiff is legally a free man of Missouri, within the eleventh section of the aut of '89. I has been objected that he is not entitled to all he lumminides of other citizens, but if that is he test of citizenship, three-fourths of the whites of the United States are not citizens, because the census shows there is not more than one voter in every five of the inhabitants, therefore that hy-nothers does not hald good. The allegation that the plaintiff is not a crizze breaks he does not ong to a particular class, such as are elligible Senate or instance, falls to the ground like he other, because there are many cit. sens of the Urated States—foreigners by hirth—who wro not clingible to the Presidency. He referred to the recision of Judge Gatten, of North Carolina that all persons bere in results are clinear; sixes on cit. 2018 under disabilities; and foreigners are a-n- under disabilities, which are rem ved by saturation." He instanced the Constitutions of Tarrieus States, which declare "That every white male citizen shall vote;" showing the be to make citizen shall vote; showing the tears are noner citizens, and that it is a necessity odeny them certain privileges by perivive enactions and express law. Air. Beair thought the process law for contrast justice, and contended on the ground of the brown raving of the privileges of cit amen p. Judge Gaston States privileges of cit amen p. Judge Gaston States according to the contrast privileges. where her been no law repealing the peneral principle of common law, "and both makes citizen-alpindeed." An act of the Missouri Logicaour of 45 expressly recognizes free negrous a entirent, and declared that none shall come then who are not declared by other States settizen. The next question is the Come i utilizating e Messari C mpromise. He quoted an act of Llinois of the subject of sievery, any violation of white cusiers resembles. The man took the negreor filmous under the knowledge that he thereby being free, and carnot be hell. He intended to colate a law which probibles a avery, or lavelun elutivita servitule. As to the constitutionality of the Missouri compromise, he, with the country, had entire confidence in the decision of this court whicheverside of the land the had been supported by the court whichevers the of the land the might decide, was indifferent him. A pro-osition was made by Congress it 730, to the mates for a general cas ion of land-rthe purp se of general administration of them or common use and benefit. The first to be sold; no recond for the appointment of temporary gov-numents; the third for admission as States node. remedie; the tente for admission were made by Virginia and ther States. In 84 a resolution use effected by Jefferson excluding slavery from the land coded. Some of the States being untipresented, it did not pass. In '85 Mr. King. presented, it do not passe, the renewal of the renewal of the result of the second all results power to pass rules and regulations for the government of the Territory. This rould authories the enactment of a law problem is glavery. The court had affirmed that act of ay, re-enacted that of '87, and by the 8th secof the M. securi sci, siavery was forever pro ed north of 36 legrees and 30 minutes. There was ro doubt upon the subject till the invention of squatter sovereignty, which he thought was the father of many enomalies. The Vigilance Committee, of San Frascisce, for instance was an illegitimate exercise of squatter sovereignty. The Compromise of 1850 in spirit, if not happened a committee of 1850 in spirit, in not larguage, restirms the act of 1845 pro-nibiling slavery in Texas, north of that line, for it says nothing shall be implied to invalidate, etc.

REMARKS—Money—There has been an unassally great demand for money during the past wesk, and the affect has been to produce some temporary feeling of tightness among askers. If the weather should prove favorable to the packers of pork, this stete of affairawill probably continue for ten days or two weeks. Within the past few days considerable excitement has existed in regard to the free banks of Tennessee. We cannot promise this week to give very reliable quotations in our money column. The rate of discount on all Tennessee money received on deposit has advanced to 19 cent. The etock hanks, with few saceptions, wild onto injure the many at the expense of the faw.

Exchange—On the East has declined to par for the buying rate. Sailing rates continue at May premium. On New Orleans the demand continues, and rates are tending upward. On Nashvilla the baying rate is advanced to 19 cent.

A Crusher. BRAND'S PREMIUM STOCK

RAND'S PREMIUM STOCK MILL is now admitted to be the best zaill of the kind extant. It has, on several occasions, coatended for the award of merit with other mills, and partiaulerly with the famed "Little Giant," and in avery instance has taken the premium. As a recent trial with the latter upon the Fair Grongas of the Southwestern Agricultural and Assancial Association, it again took the prize. It chands now without a rival.

This mill combines three principles—that of entting with several seel blades, with that of crushing and griedlyz. It is heavier and stonger, and less liable to her oker get cut of repart, than any other mill before the public. It is more asally utjusted, being set coarsor inc by a single acraw, which may be done by a boy in years old. It may he weed for enting and grinding apples, turnipe, beete, and rutabayast and with small additional aspense, will cat and grinder on which the same of the seels use. It is turniped complete, with a weep hook and server, and saler, than any other mill of the ciscia use. It is turnibed complete, with a weep hook and server, and any farmer, with his award and are, any settle apand have legicidized in half an boar.
